COLUMBUS HERE TODAY TO PLAY THE SNAPPERS

MISSISSIPPI TEAM HAS SEVERAL NEW PLAYERS AND WILL FIGHT HARD FOR EVERY GAME OF THE SERIES.

The Snappers will open a three-day engagement at Maxent park this afternoon with the Columbus club, and the fans are hoping the home boys will continue their winning ways. The Snappers headed by Manager Jimmie Hamilton reached home yesterday afternoon at 4:10 and were given a warm greeting by the fans. They boys were glad to get back after a trip that started nearly two weeks ago and were also glad of the day of rest before starting another series at Maxent park.

Manager Hamilton was, of course, highly pleased with the road trip and the record of winning eight of the nine games played. He said that at all of the games played by the Snappers good crowds were out to see them with the exception of the three games at Meridian, where the attendance was small.

The rejuvenated Columbus club should put up a harder fight than on its former visit to this city, for the reason that considerable strength has been added. At least a number of new players have been secured and the team should make a better showing.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the admission for ladies will be 25 cents.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE POSTPONES GAMES

The Twilight league, which was to have had its opening ball game of the season this afternoon, has postponed the exhibition on account of the death of Herbert E. White, an enthusiastic and valued member of the White & White team.

Although no dates have been decided upon it is stated by those in authority that no games will be played before some date to be decided upon next week.

The members of the league will attend the funeral of their dead comrade and fellow player this afternoon.

NATIONAL PASTIME'S PATRIARCH PITCHERS

Christy Mathewson (top) and Eddie Plank.

Christy Mathewson and Eddie Plank are the patriarch pitchers of the national pastime, but they stand out today among the best in their profession and it's the fourteenth major league season for each. Matty joined the New York Giants in 1900, but he did little mound duty until 1901. Since that time he has earned an average of .684. Eddie Plank went to the Philadelphia Athletics in 1901 from Gettysburg and made good at once. In only one season did he fall below the .500 mark in the percentage of victories. Plank's greatest year was 1906, when he led the American league. Matty's best year was 1905 when he won $1 and lost 9 games.

Plank is the oldest pitcher in the fast set, being thirty-eight years of age. Both he and Matty have been "up there" a long time but this season they are the most valuable pitchers on their respective clubs.

Two Merkle stunts were pulled off by big league players one afternoon not so very long ago. Ray Chapman of the Cleveland Naps failed to touch first on a double and was called out by the umpire, costing Cleveland a run which might have won a game lost to Chicago. Artie Hoffman of the Pittsburgh Pirates doubled and then failed to touch third when coming home on Byrnes' double. His Merkle didn't affect the result of the game.

Tommy Murphy, veteran trainer of the Grand Circuit and one of its biggest and most consistent stake-winners, will spring seventeen ponies on the big circle this season. In the list are a bunch of known speedsters and some youngsters horsemen believe Tommy will develop into sensations before the season is very old.

Members of the Baseball Players' Protective Fraternity are getting up in arms over the conduct, or lack of conduct, of President Dave Fultz, former ballplayer and now lawyer in New York city. They declare that Dave is not in touch with actual conditions of the game and has bestirred himself in no effective way to bring the players into closer contact with the powers of baseball.

The most fore-handed fan in baseball has made his appearance in the person of Paul G. Brock of Washington, D. C., who has mailed a check to Gary Herrmann, chairman of the national commission, for two grandstand seats at the world's series games of next fall. He believes his Washington Senators will be asked up in the fringes at that time.

It didn't avail Red Magee of the St. Louis Cardinals much the other day to hit a homer into the bleachers for a home run with three of his teammates on the bases. The Pittsburgh Pirates took advantage of three errors to score five runs and win.

Rube Waddell, former pitching star of the American league, signed with the American Association for refusal to keep in condition, has been sent from Minneapolis of that circuit to Minneapolis of the Northern league. Rube has had neuritis and neuritis, neuritis, and it is thought that they will condition better in the slower company.

It strikes us that one of the easiest ways to gain notoriety is to own a baseball club. "Sky" Britton of Cleveland, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, has had a baseball team named after him. The Brittons are in the Mercantile league in St. Louis.

THREE ENTRIES IN RACES TODAY

The third annual 500-mile international sweepstakes race to be held on the Indianapolis motor speedway May 30 will undoubtedly be the greatest in the history of the event. The full list of 30 entrants allowed by the rules of the track will be complete by the time the entries close. In the lot will be numbered the greatest drivers of America and some of Europe's most noted pilots. New things in the speed line are expected of "Wild Bob" Burman, the so-called "Speed King," who will drive a Keeton car, and of Spencer Wishart, millionaire sportsman, and Ralph De Palma, a young Italian-American driver.

But his wife was awake—trust the wife, though the wife trusts not you! "Now, tell me everything that happened," she cried. "Cross my heart!" "Well—the goat died."
